CONGRESS IN WAR TO FINISH

BRITISH HAIL U. S. STEP AS CONFLICT'S GREATEST

Northcliffe Tells the Views of Leading Britons As to Yankee Intervention

WILSON SPEECH HELD
NOBLE STATESMANSHIP
American Executive's Words
Rank With Lincoln's and Washington's, View

BY LORD NORTHCLIFFE
(Written for the United Press)
LONDON, April 4.—I have taken a few hours to collect opinions of members of both houses of parliament and many of the general public.
Experts in statesmanship regard the President's speech as likely to rank with the most notable utterances of Washington and Lincoln. Its dignity, restraint and insight are considered absolutely worthy of the chief of a hundred million of the republic's citizens at this tremendous moment.
The joining with the allies by the United States is especially welcomed by Englishmen who are fighting side by side with the heroic French.

We regard the coming in of Uncle Sam as the help of another big brother in France's fight against the Prussian bully.
We will be able to take care of our own part of the war on land, on sea, in munitions plants and in the treasury, but the territories of France and Belgium have been chosen by the Hohenzollerns as their battle ground for the conquest of the world and it is fitting that we of the free English-speaking nations—Americans, British, Canadians, Australians, New Zealanders, South Africans—should combine with Russia and Italy to rid the world of kaiserism—just as the Russian people united against the domination of czarism.

The intervention of the United States is the greatest event in the history of the war since August, 1914.

TO BUILD FLEET AT S. F. PLANT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—It was learned today that work will start immediately at the Union Iron Works here on sixteen destroyers, eight submarines and two scout cruisers.
The heads of the Union plant expect to complete the fighting craft in half the allotted time.

MAN, 83, LEAVES L. A. THURSDAY FOR LONDON TO TAKE UP WAR DUTY

LOS ANGELES, April 4.—At the age of 83—when most men admit they're through—Harris Imy is preparing to re-enlist. A Russian by birth and a Briton by naturalization, he plans to leave for London tomorrow to do special work for England in the war.

Imy was born in a Moscow barracks, and in addition to service in the Crimean war, he was with Kitchener in the Khartoum expedition. His joy is unbounded at learning he is not considered too old to do his "bit."

FRENCH GIRL SEIZES CHUNK OF MUD FROM SOLDIER'S KNAPSACK

LONDON, April 4.—A French girl seized a chunk of mud from a Tommy's knapsack at the Charing Cross station with the explanation that now she could take a peep at her beloved home land whenever she wanted to.

U. S. Appeals For 20,000 Reserve Corps Artisans

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The war department today issued an appeal for 20,000 artisans to fill up the quartermaster's enlisted reserve corps for war time services. The department wishes immediately to begin training the men.

The men are to be given their rank now, to be subject to active service at the President's call. The department appealed to the press to give maximum publicity to the call.

The following trades are called upon:

Bakers, blacksmiths, butchers, carpenters, carpenter foremen, chauffeurs, checkers, clerks, cooks, electricians and helpers, steam engineers, farriers, forage masters, horseshoers, horse trainers, laborers, machinists and helpers, brick and stone masons, mechanics and helpers (automobile), motor car masters and assistants, motor truck masters and assistants, motorcyclists, overseers of labor, painters, painters foremen, packers (pack trains), paskmasters and foremen, plumbers foremen, saddlers foremen and saddlers, stable men, stenographers, store keepers, teamsters, tent makers, train masters, typewriters, wagon masters and assistants, watchmen and wheelwrights.

The pay in the quartermaster's enlisted forces ranges from $75 to $90 a month.

FRENCH PATROLS CUT WAY INTO ST. QUENTIN

Advance Guard Penetrates to Outskirts of Base In Hindenburg Line

PARIS, April 4.—French patrols today penetrated into the southwestern outskirts of the town of St. Quentin, the official statement declared.

The French troops continued their advance over the entire front around St. Quentin during the night, the war office declared, "pushing our patrols into the southeastern outskirts of the city."

The statement also reported progress made on both east and west banks of the Somme and south of the Ailette river.

ALLIES IN PERFECT HARMONY DRIVE ON STRONGHOLD

LONDON, April 4.—Perfect coordination between the French and British forces smashed the allied ring of steel still closer to St. Quentin today. While the British feigned, as if in continuation of their assumption of the initiative during the past few days, the French suddenly drove a great thrust forward on a front of eight miles south of St. Quentin and captured three villages and a dominating series of heights two miles distant from the town. Then the British resumed their steady pounding away at the German lines.

It is a race between British and French forces now to see which will take the city first. They are almost equally distant from the town. The British have a scant few hundred yards advantage and like General Nivelle's troops, also hold a dominating ridge. Both armies were reported in battle front dispatches today to be pushing steadily ahead.

Meanwhile the French are tightening their pressure against German lines south of La Fere, driving forward another wedge toward Anizy.

GERMAN-AMERICAN RADIO SERVICE SUSPENDS

THE HAGUE, April 4.—The German-American wireless service has ceased, Berlin advices today indicated its abandonment, in view of present conditions.

The Sayville wireless station today sent a number of official German wireless items. There was no wireless report received yesterday.

CRAZED MAN KILLS 3 AND IS SLAIN

PEACE JUSTICE SLAIN IN HIS COURTROOM

Farmer Becomes Demented
Over Worry Resulting From Litigation

HANFORD, Cal., April 4.—Four persons are dead here as the result of one of the most sensational shooting tragedies known to this section.

Becoming suddenly insane as a result of worrying over litigation, L. T. Denny, a rancher, today shot and killed Justice of the Peace Meadows in Meadows' courtroom.

Denny then proceeded to the office of Attorney Cosper and turned his gun on him with fatal effect.

W. C. Whitely was Denny's next victim.

With three men dead, Denny jumped into an automobile and tried to escape.

The city marshal of Hanford, arriving, shot and killed the crazed rancher before he could get away.

The tragedy occurred in the busiest section of the city.

The downtown section of the city was thrown into a panic.

SPOKANE BATTLE FOR BRANCH RESERVE BANK

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—Further arguments by representatives of Seattle, Portland and Spokane in support of claims by each of these cities for the proposed new branch of the Federal Reserve Bank were heard here today by the directors of the Twelfth District Federal Reserve Bank.

When the arguments are completed it is expected that the directors will reserve for a few days their decision as to the location of the bank, in order to give them time for deliberation and digest of the arguments. Adolph J. Miller, of Washington, D. C., a member of the Federal Reserve Board, is sitting with the Twelfth District directors.

L. J. WILDE, BANKER, IS SAN DIEGO'S MAYOR

SAN DIEGO, April 4.—Louis J. Wilde, banker and promoter, today has been elected mayor of San Diego as the result of yesterday's election. On early returns his majority over George W. Marston, owner of the city's largest store, is about 3700. For city council Rev. Howard B. Bard, Unitarian minister; John L. Bacon and Virgilio Bruschi were elected. An initiative ordinance to forbid the publication or distribution of race track tips and "dope" was defeated by about 350 votes.

L. A. MAN'S FINGER IS PINCHED OFF AS DOOR OF BANK VAULT SHUTS

LOS ANGELES, April 4.—The first finger was completely severed from the left hand of H. W. Frenk early today when the ponderous door of a bank vault suddenly closed on his hand. Frenk, who had just been employed as a bank clerk one day, was closing the vault preparatory to leaving after working the night shift.

DEEP CHAGRIN IN GERMANY IS REPORT

Berlin Dispatches At Hague
Say Teuton Chiefs Vexed
Over Wilson Message

U. S. RESPONSIBLE, SAY AIDES OF EMPEROR

Officials Aver They Cannot
See Any Reason For Hostile
Yankee Stand

THE HAGUE, April 4.—Germany receives the news of President Wilson's address "with the deepest chagrin," foreign office officials formally stated to correspondents today, according to Berlin dispatches.

German government leaders added, it was said, that Americans could remain unmolested in Germany as long as Germans were unmolested in America.

BY JOHN GRANDENS

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
BERLIN, April 4.—Officials here today said they could not see any reason for America's adopting a hostile attitude toward Germany.

They protested that responsibility must rest with the United States and that it does not lie with Germany, in the meantime, it was asserted, Germany will treat Americans still remaining in Germany just the same as heretofore.

Berlin newspapers and public discussion among Germans is divided between the American situation and the franchise reform movement in Germany.

TAGEBLATT SOUNDS WARNING TO GERMAN PEOPLE

AMSTERDAM, April 4.—"Germans must not underestimate the importance of the United States entering the war; for America is the richest country in the world," declared the Berliner Tageblatt today, according to Berlin dispatches.

"President Wilson," the editorial asserted, "ought to know a war declaration is a matter of greater moment to America than to Germany."

"The German people, however, seem convinced participation of the last great neutral power will not defeat Germany."

"We regret America is thus causing a prolongation of the war. But the German people bravely face their enemy and their new task."

MAY SPREAD WAR MESSAGE OVER GERMAN BY AEROS

LONDON, April 4.—In view of the extreme improbability that the German press will be permitted to publish the text of President Wilson's speech, it was stated today the Allies are considering a plan of distributing it broadcast over Germany by aeroplane.

THE HAGUE, April 4.—Advices received here today state that the American situation is the main topic of discussion at a conference of the leaders of the Central Powers now being held at Nemburg.

Martin Resolution Favorably Reported In House, 2 Dissent

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The house will be asked tomorrow morning to take action on the Martin war resolution. The house foreign affairs committee agreed upon this today when it reported favorably the resolution with but two dissenting votes—those of Representatives Shackleford of Missouri and Cooper, Wisconsin. The support of the war to a finish in both houses is assured.

BY CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Urging that there be no faltering, no division, no weakness in the nation," Senator Hitchcock, upon opening of the senate today began his argument for passage of the resolution that will make war with Germany an open actuality.

Hitchcock's appeal was the more drastic as he declared he had always been opposed to war and even in face of that former belief, asked congress to pledge the nation to a war that may last three years and cost much blood sacrifice, a war "that shall have no Gethsemane."

"We want no more territory, demand no indemnity, have no historic grudges to settle and no racial antipathies," Hitchcock began. "We alone of all the nations will spend our treasure and lives without hope of material gain."

"We are going to war to vindicate honor and independence as a great nation. We are going to war in defense of humanity."

"Such quarrel as we have was forced upon us."

"I do not believe the Germans desire war, but the German government is desperate."

"No great nation could hold a place in history if it permitted itself to be ordered off the sea."

Once Opposed to War
Hitchcock declared he had been bitterly opposed to war and had used all his influence to avoid it.

"Even after I knew that the people of the United States were overwhelmingly for war I tried to avoid it," he said.

"I even sought out the President and begged him to avoid war. But now I am ready to take my place with those who will back the President in his prosecuting the war to the utmost."

"While the vote has not been taken, we know the decision—it is war," he shouted.

As the senator sat down there was a profound stir in the galleries.

Senator Swanson of Virginia then began his address.

La Follette Absent
Senator La Follette, one of the "willful twelve," was not present when the Senate began its patriotic program.

Swanson and Lodge lent their voices to the plea of Senator Hitchcock for immediate strong aggressive action against Germany.

Anticipating spirited opposition to the war resolutions by La Follette and Stone, Republicans were preparing to rebuke the former and the Democrats the latter on the floor.

Many members, both Republicans and Democrats, it became known today, for some time have figured upon taking drastic action against La Follette and Stone, if they attempted any filibustering tactics.

"The issue is not war or peace," Senator Swanson said. "War has already been wantonily and lawlessly prosecuted against us. The question is whether we shall accept war or cowardly and abject submission. The violation of our territory by high German officials in this country has been detailed."

"For four years we have known of German activities in Mexico, prejudicial to our interest and seeking to embroil us with that country. We have long suspected a disposition on the part of Germany to dispute with us the Monroe doctrine to seek to extend to the Western Hemisphere her territorial spoils."

A blow at the pacifists was struck by Swanson.

"They would force upon this nation the shame of still greater submission," he said.

Senator Vandaman, with Senator Stone, decried the war move, but declared himself, as did Stone, personally ready to make the war on Germany successful.

Senator Stone, it was learned, will vote against the resolution.

Senator McCumber introduced a substitute for the Senate war resolution, designed to postpone the war and give Germany a chance to change her methods. The McCumber resolution proposes the right of belligerents to establish a blockade by any means would regard further unwarned sinkings of American ships and loss of American lives as an act of war.

McCumber proposes warning Americans off of ships while negotiations for a settlement with Germany are in progress, holding that America can best serve the interests of humanity if acting as a neutral.

Senator Stone said:

Sees Bill as Blunder
"I fear that Congress will involve America in war when it passes the resolution that a state of war exists and thus commit history's greatest national blunder. I shall vote against

U. S. PREPARES TO HURL ALL ITS POWER AT KAISER

Among Most Important of War Plans Selective Conscription Looms Big

SENDING OF SUPPLIES TO ALLIES PLANNED

Co-operation of American and Entente Sea Forces Worked
Out In Detail

WASHINGTON, April 4.—By the time Congress acts on the "war resolution" all plans for assembling all the nation's forces to strike at the imperial government of Germany will be ready for presentation by the President.

Army legislation based on selective conscription of the country's young men as rapidly as they can be equipped, officered and trained, is considered probably the most important of the war plans.

All men except those exempted—such as married men, mechanical experts, scientists, etc.—will be expected to come under the colors.

The government will have some designation—a button, probably—which will be given to those exempted and otherwise serving the country, but who are not under training. This is the same scheme followed by England to protect those not actually in the army from being dubbed "slackers."

Increments of 500,000

Under the three-year basis plan it is the intention of the government to train men in increments of 500,000 until there are sufficient forces to beat Germany.

No men will be sent to Europe immediately; probably none will go for at least six months. The present regulars believe they will be the first expeditionary force, leaving the newly-trained men as a home guard until the second increment of 500,000 is trained.

The maximum and minimum age limits for the first call is expected to be 18 to 23.

Pending the raising of America's army, this government is making preparations to ship unlimited supplies to the allies—including not only money, but food and ammunition.

The greatest problem is admittedly getting the supplies to the Entente ports.

Hence the big problem before the navy, according to navy officers, is creating effective means of combating the U-boat.

Navy Duties Mapped

Naval co-operation between the United States and the Entente allies has already been planned in detail, which are naturally secret.

The National Defense Council—President Wilson's advisory war cabinet—is in daily session, methodically working out details of mobilizing resources, plans of economizing in all these resources and means of hastening supplies for the army and navy—and the allies.

WOULD DENY GERMAN PAPERS USE OF MAILS

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Senator Poindexter has prepared a resolution denying the use of the mails to papers printed in the German language. He says that most of the German publications will be loyal, but that even one propagandist organ would be harmful to the interest of the government.

YANKEE AIRMEN SEEK TO FLY U. S. FLAG IN FRANCE

PARIS, April 4.—The leading American aviators now in the service of the French armies, today asked permission to fly the American flag on their airplanes in battle.

CANAL MACHINERY IS EN ROUTE TO ALASKA

LOS ANGELES, April 4.—Loaded with machinery used in the construction of the Panama Canal, the steamer Turret Crown is here today, en route to Anchorage, Alaska. The machinery is being taken north for use by the government on Alaska railroad construction.

Aids to Beauty

BEAUTY IS NOT NECESSARILY A GIFT—IT MAY BE AND VERY OFTEN IS, ACQUIRED.

There are many types of feminine beauty and divers opinions as to what adds to it most, but upon one point practically all are agreed:

A Woman's Crowning Glory is Her Hair

And beautiful hair may be developed to a great degree by devoting a few moments daily to "Beauty Culture" of the hair. Baird's Scalp Tonic is a preparation that is a positive aid to hair beauty. It thoroughly removes dandruff from the scalp, thus effectively stopping that dreadful falling out of the hair, and by keeping the scalp clean and healthy, the hair maintains its natural growth and takes on a new lustre.

How to Beautify the Hair

To beautify your hair with Baird's Scalp Tonic, moisten a cloth every day with the tonic and draw through your hair, taking only a small strand at a time. You will be astonished at the result of a few days' treatment. The hair will soon become soft, fluffy and wavy and will steadily increase in length and thickness.

Baird's Scalp Tonic imparts a delicate perfume, is very refreshing and overcomes the unpleasant effects of scalp perspiration.

The 8-ounce Bottle is the Convenient Size and sells at 50 cents.

COMMITTEE IS TO REPORT ON PLAN FOR CO. ROAD ENGINEER

Special Meeting of Associated Chambers Tomorrow Night Hear Committee Report

Whether or not the Associated Chambers of Commerce will endorse the Ream bill now before the legislature will depend on a committee report to be made at a special meeting of the organization to be held in the city council chambers at the city hall tomorrow evening. The bill makes it mandatory upon boards of supervisors in every county in the state to appoint a road engineer to have full charge of the roads of the county.

It is generally believed the report will be unfavorable to the bill.

The merits and demerits of road supervision by an expert were fully discussed at the annual meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce here last Wednesday, and endorsement of the plan was referred to a committee consisting of J. A. McFadden, J. P. Greeley, J. A. Knapp, Dr. J. D. Thomas and Lew H. Wallace. The committee yesterday visited Los Angeles, conferring with members of the Board of Supervisors for the purpose of getting their opinion on the merits of the plan.

The committee met here this afternoon to discuss the matter and come to a conclusion as to what recommendation it will make to the Associated tomorrow night.

TUSTIN

ARE PLANNING ADDITION FOR TUSTIN CHURCH

Sunday School Rooms and Kitchen Equipment Are Discussed

TUSTIN, April 4.—At the regular quarterly business meeting of the officers of the Advent Christian church a building committee was appointed to consider plans for new Sunday school rooms.

The addition to the church has been fully determined upon and plans are under consideration to build six new rooms. There will be a kitchen and serving rooms as well as new class rooms, and the building will begin just as soon as possible. The roof of the church building will be remodeled to suit the new addition. The new structure will extend thirty feet back of the church and ten feet on the east side.

VESPER SERVICE

Easter vesper services will be held next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 in the Tustin Presbyterian church. The song service will be given by the church choir, under the direction of Mrs. Slabaugh of Santa Ana. Everybody is invited to attend.

DAY NURSERY TEA

On last Friday evening Mrs. F. T. Preble gave a number of friends, the school board and teachers an opportunity to help in the Day Nursery cause and at the same time spend a delightful social evening.

Those present engaged in merry games, the most exciting of which was that of indoor baseball.

Later in the evening Mrs. Preble was assisted in serving refreshments by her daughters, Misses Anita and Irene, and little son, James. The toothsome good things were sandwiches, coffee and olives and most delicious orange sherbet and cake.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Marchant, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Deswick, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Risk, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McDougal, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Overton, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Stanley, Mrs. Effie Slusser, Miss Minnie Johnson, Miss Clara Enderle, Miss Lois Wilson, Miss Eva Osborne, Miss Carrie Elder, Miss Grace Hight, Miss Grace Casner, Miss Edith Adams, Mrs. Young and Miss Lapham.

YEARLY CONFERENCE

The annual conference of the Advent Christian church will be held next week in Pasadena, beginning Wednesday morning. A large delegation of the members of this church is expected to go from Tustin.

Send someone to the drug store now for a dime package of Dr. James' Headache Powders. Don't suffer! In a few moments you will feel fine—headache gone—no more neuralgia pain.

PEELER STORE AGAIN ROBBED

This Time Thieves Get Away With Eight Pair Shoes and Some Pocket Knives

Hugh M. Peeler's store at Placentia was burglarized again last night. This makes its third robbery in the last six months. Last night the thief entered by breaking a rear window.

Among the articles taken away were eight pairs of shoes and several dozen pocket knives and other pieces of cutlery. In the first robbery two pairs of shoes were taken. In the second nothing of consequence was taken.

Under Sheriff Iman and Deputy Maxwell went to the place this morning and made an investigation. No clues were found.

Villa Park Store Monday night John Gunnett's store at Villa Park was entered by a burglar who found $1 that he took. The thief bored holes in a door until he made a hole large enough for his hand. Reaching through the hole, he lifted the bar.

Fish a la Wynne

Boil two pounds of codfish and while hot remove all bones, skin, and flake fish in small pieces. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Mix together a gill of anchovy essence, one tablespoonful of mustard and the same of tarragon vinegar and olive oil. Over the fish sprinkle some grated Edam cheese and stir through the mixture. Arrange it on a salad dish, garnish with water-cress and sliced cucumbers and set on ice for an hour or more to chill. Serve with salad a very thin mayonnaise.

A Declaration of War

On the High Cost of Living is the slogan of many Santa Ana housewives who are daily attending

Mrs. Mary L. Haines'

Free Economic Cooking School

War time means hard times, increased prices, less production. The wise housewife is she who prepares herself for any emergencies. The safest and surest way of preparing is to attend Mrs. Haines' free school in cooking where economical recipes are taught and demonstrated.

Mrs. Haines teaches economy in buying, in cooking and in serving. She eliminates expensive recipes and substitutes foods within the reach of every Santa Ana housewife.

Economy in the home begins in the kitchen. Start today on the road to economy and leave the High Cost of Living in the background. Mrs. Haines teaches cooking without the use of eggs, milk, butter or other seemingly necessary products which add to the general expense of your kitchen.

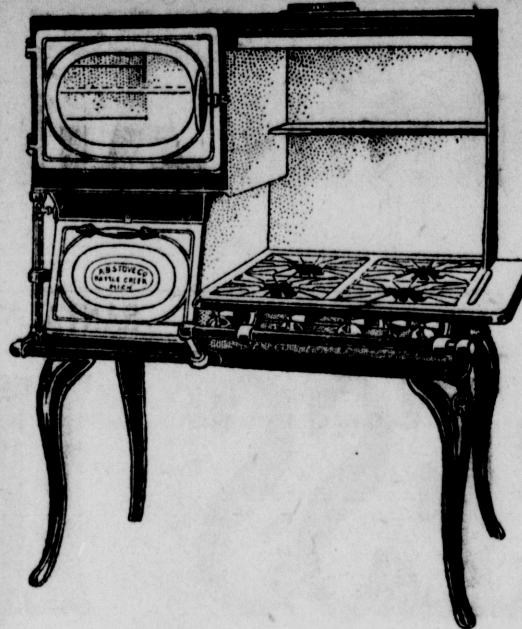

This teacher urges every housewife to bring a pencil and paper pad for taking notes on her recipes. She also asks that a small sampling dish and spoon be brought along for sampling purposes.

Learn to Cook Economically

ENLARGEMENT OF CHURCH IS NAMED

Men and Women Selected to Arrange Plans For Remodelling Christian Church

T. D. Knights, chairman of the official board of the Christian Church, today appointed the committee which will have charge of plans for enlarging the church building at the corner of Broadway and Sixth, suggested by a woman member of the church who has offered to give a $5000 pipe organ if the congregation would raise the money to wipe out the church debt and enlarge the church edifice. The committee is composed of Mrs. Marie Harris, Mrs. E. E. Gist, Rev. Lloyd Darsie, W. T. Mitchell and T. D. Knights.

The announcement of the offer of an organ under the conditions named, has aroused the greatest interest among members of the church, and plans will be made at once for the campaign to secure subscriptions to the fund. Alterations and enlargement of the church will cost in the neighborhood of $5000, which with the indebtedness of $2000, will make a fund of about $7000 necessary to comply with the conditions accompanying the offer of the pipe organ.

TALBERT

SURPRISE GIVEN PRESIDENT OF THE CORPS

Plans For Taking Her By Storm Are Carried Out Successfully

TALBERT, April 4.—A most delightful surprise was carried out by the women of the Relief Corps of Huntington Beach upon Mrs. A. F. Swift last Friday afternoon at her home here.

The success of the plans for the occasion which was in honor of Mrs. Swift's birthday that day, was largely due to the ingenuity of Mrs. Bow, press correspondent of the Corps of which Mrs. Swift is president. The women accompanied by several of the men motored over from Huntington Beach and descended upon the honoree in a body, there being thirty-six in all.

After the first flurry of excitement, while the greetings and good wishes flew thick and fast, the hours were passed pleasantly and swiftly with music and various amusements.

A lovely brooch, a gift of the Corps, presented with a few apt words by Mrs. Bow, testified to the high esteem and appreciation left by her co-workers for Mrs. Swift for the efficient service rendered by her during the two years she has been the capable president of the W. R. C. This token is greatly appreciated by Mrs. Swift as were the other beautiful remembrances of the occasion presented by individuals present.

Delectable refreshments were enjoyed before the departure of the guests, who included Mr. and Mrs. Lash, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Hern, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Biodegett, Mrs. Cheney, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Gallienne, Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Bushard, Miss Marie Bushard, Mrs. Starr Robinson, Mrs. Ashman, Mrs. Miles, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Criley, Mrs. Hugh Criley, Miss Criley, Mrs. Wil-

THIS is Mrs. Mary Lewis Haines, who is conducting a free cooking school at the Southern Counties Gas office. Mrs. Haines is taking some healthy swats at the H. C. L. Read what she has to say below concerning the "disinclination to economize" on the part of American housewives.

"I read in a recent publication an article by one of the world's most famous chefs, a very caustic criticism of the American housewife and her disinclination to economize," says Mrs. Haines, who is conducting a cooking school here, for the Southern Counties Gas Company.

"Unfortunately it was only too true. America has always been so prosperous compared with European countries that there has not been the stern necessity to economize. Now, however, we must confront a different situation. We can no longer continue the extravagance of buying and cooking that we have had so long."

"New cook books are re-arranging their recipes, for the distressed housewife cannot afford the expense of the recipes as given even one and two years ago."

"For instance, do you know how to take one or two tablespoons full of meat or fish and at a cost of five or six cents make a good fish dinner for six persons?"

"First must come economy in buying, then economy in cooking, then economy in the use of every particle of left-over, no matter what it is. There are hundreds of useful ways of utilizing the left-overs in delicious and nutritious dishes at very low cost."

Hams, Miss Sylvester, Mrs. McCain, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Jansen, Mrs. Bow, Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Cline of Huntington Beach, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Swift, Mrs. Robt. Wardlow, Mrs. Will Jones and Mrs. W. A. Jones of Talbert.

John Winans of Santa Ana was a Sunday guest at F. D. Plavan's.

F. D. Plavan and son Clyde went to Frank Berry's ranch in the Santa Ana canyon last Friday afternoon to look at some cattle with the view of buying. The purchase was made.

Saturday, Ernest Plavan brought his mother, Mrs. F. D. Plavan, home from Perris, where she has been with him at the ranch the past week. On his return Monday morning he was accompanied by his sisters, Miss Alma and Miss Wilma Plavan, the latter of whom will spend the week's vacation with them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Plavan entertained as guests at their home Thursday and Friday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Al Jackson, who are spending a short time in Long Beach. Their home is at Weizer, Idaho, which was Mrs. Plavan's home before coming to California and where she and Mr. Jackson were acquainted.

Miss Velda Lamb of Santa Ana visited Sunday with Miss Mary Muller, who accompanied her home that evening, remaining as her guest over night. On Monday she visited the Polytechnic High School, where Miss Lamb is a pupil.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Plavan motored Sunday to Los Angeles and Pasadena, going by the way of Long Beach.

The plasterers are now at work on Charles Ward's new bungalow, and the frame work of Emil Leervig's is now up. The buildings are being erected by Contractor Pickering of Santa Ana.

Mrs. Berry Stice of Santa Ana spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. L. T. Wells.

Mrs. M. A. Nimmo is entertaining her nieces, Miss Frances Brownell and sister, Miss Ida Brownell, at her home this week. The young ladies, whose home is at Hollywood, arrived Monday and will spend the week's vacation here. Both are students of the Hollywood high school. Miss Frances being a member of the senior class of 250 that will graduate this June.

Spring vacation is here and the teachers and pupils of the local school are enjoying a well-earned rest this week. School will re-open Monday, the 9th.

Mrs. V. V. Sweet of Orange came Tuesday to visit Mrs. Leo Borchard. She will remain for the week.

Church Notice
SOUTH METHODIST: Sunday school, 6:30 p. m.; preaching, 7:30 p. m.—Rev. J. Alvah Andrews, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Friedrich and family of Oxnard visited Wednesday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Borchard, going on to Fairview that evening, where they spent the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Borchard. Thursday morning they left for home, Mrs. Charles E. Borchard accompanying them. Mrs. Friedrich and Leo Borchard are cousins.

Miss Mary Muller, who has had the measles, is now entirely recovered. No other cases have developed so far in the community.

Leo Borchard attended the meeting of the Knights of Columbus held in Santa Ana Sunday. He is an officer of the Santa Ana organization.

Mrs. Arnold Walker's niece, Emma Morton, came Monday to spend the week's vacation at the Walker home. Her home is at Long Beach.

George Bradley and son-in-law, Walter Walte, of Huntington Beach, went to San Juan Capistrano fishing Sunday. They had good success, returning with a number of nice fish.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wardlow of Santa Ana were Sunday visitors at the homes of their sons, Robert and Ray Wardlow, of Talbert.

Motor to Van Nuys

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward motored to Van Nuys Sunday, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell. The Campbells were residents here fourteen years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sargent moved to Huntington Beach the first, where Mr. Sargent has accepted a position as chauffeur for W. A. Johnson. Mrs. Robert Giesler and daughters, the Misses Emma and Della Giesler, spent Monday of this week in Los Angeles.

F. D. Plavan finished re-planting beets at his Paulerino ranch and now has his caterpillar at home again. A few have yet to be re-planted on one of his ranches near the home ranch which will be the last work of this kind necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brady of Hollywood stopped over Saturday evening at S. E. Talbert's as they were on their way to Holtville, Imperial county, where they will visit relatives.

The connecting ditch between ditches Nos. 1 and 2 of the Talbert district, was completed Saturday and the dredger moved to the ditch by Sam Giesler's ranch. As it is necessary to replace the flues in the boiler and this will take four or five days, it will be the last of the week before the dredger will begin operations again.

Church Work
A great deal of interest is being manifested in church work at the little local church and regular evenings for prayer meeting and choir practice will soon be decided upon.

Arrangements for a series of revival meetings to be held here next month are being made.

Rev. Andrews opened revival meetings at his Greenville church Monday evening. Services open at 7:30 p. m. and there will be a different speaker each evening. A most cordial invitation is given for all to attend.

Rev. A. T. O'Rear, pastor of the Spurgeon Memorial church of Santa Ana, will speak Friday evening and after services a picnic lunch will be enjoyed. Each person is asked to bring some lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bullock, who were married last Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, of Santa Ana, came Thursday to their ranch, formerly the Carey place, where they will make their home.

Ten young men friends, headed by the groom's brother, made them a social call Friday evening, their approach being very audibly heralded by various noises that caused the neighbors to rightly surmise that a charivari was in progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Bullock invited the party in and the evening was most pleasantly spent with games and music. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by young lady friends who were present.

The charivari crowd motored to Huntington Beach before returning home.

Next Friday a school election will be held at the local school. One trustee is to be elected. Arnold Walker's term expires soon. Mrs. A. F. Swift and Charles Ward are the holdover trustees. Mrs. Charles Ward, Mrs. Laura Horner and Mrs. Ray Wardlow are on the election board for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perrin of Los Angeles spent the week end as guests at the Talbert ranch.

"My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty."

PREDATORY AGRICULTURE

The belligerent nations are facing famine. All Europe is threatened with hunger. There is a scarcity of food in the United States and throughout the world. It is recognized by economists and all humanitarians that the most vital need of mankind in this year of our Lord is an increased production of foodstuffs. It is recognized that every man who makes two potatoes or two ears of corn grow where one grew before is performing a service for humanity. And yet, in the face of this great need, we find the president of the Cook County (Ill.) Gardening Association preaching this narrow, selfish and destructive gospel:

"We recommend to farmers to keep out of the city with their wagons. The system now is to pack the vegetables in a fancy way and discard the extra supply. It means dearer vegetables but it's the only way the farmer can exist."

"We make efforts to increase the productivity of the soil. Overproduction results. It is to the farmer's interest to throw away from one-half to two-thirds of his crop if it keeps up the prices."

If there is any more sordid and immoral doctrine than this preached by any enemy of society, we don't know what it is. The farmer who deliberately curtails production, destroys food and makes thousands go hungry and millions pay higher prices is no better than the pirate or the pillager who destroys for the lust of destruction. And any intelligent farmer or gardener ought to know that, aside from the moral consideration, the practice advocated is wrong from the standpoint of material interest.

No permanent gain can come to any class of society from destroying wealth. There may seem to be a gain in isolated cases, but in the long run the producer himself will lose.

Fortunately, it is a doctrine that has no adherents in practice in Orange County.

THEY ARE OUR FRIENDS

Twelve young officers of the Argentine navy recently came to the United States to spend a year here perfecting their professional training. Finding that war was imminent, and they would have a chance to get into action ten of them immediately enlisted under the Stars and Stripes. Three will serve on battleships, four on submarines and the other three in the aviation corps.

These men, it should be understood have acted with the consent of their own government. That means something, in view of the fact that there has been a persistent effort to persuade this country that Argentine is pro-German. Their example will no doubt be followed by hundreds of other naval and military officers in various Latin-American countries.

The present situation offers them excellent opportunities to learn present-day warfare in the effective school of experience. It enables them, too, to fight for the democratic ideals common to all the American republics. They realize that, in bearing arms along with their Yankee neighbors they are battling for their own liberties and their own national existence.

"HOLLERING"

The man who has a thing to sell, And simply tells it down a well, Will never get so many dollars, As the one that climbs a tree and hollers!

The foregoing little ditty is homely but it conveys about as much business truth as was ever put together in a sentence of thirty words. It is according to human nature, that the more publicity a thing has, the more interest it excites in the mind of the people.

You can't promote any kind of enterprise without pushing it and telling people about it. If you give an entertainment in a public hall, and merely open the doors relying on word of mouth to spread the news, you will get a handful of people.

One of the big things women's clubs throughout the country have been doing is cleaning up and beautifying their communities. We find them fighting billboard nuisances, organizing movements for attractive and clean back yards and supporting every effort for making their towns pleasanter and more wholesome places in which to live.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

Somewhat Frank

An anonymous letter is annoying for several reasons. One is the inevitable conclusion that it is written by a coward, and there is a prejudice against cowards.

Another is that aside from anonymity itself being an affront, the contents of such a letter is likely to be malicious, false, silly, slanderous. This describes a letter recently received, and noticed here only because it conveys a sentiment that is too common in this time of national crisis. I do not hesitate to advance the opinion that the writer of it, if an alien, should be expelled from the country, and that if a citizen, he is essentially a traitor. In time of war it would be the solemn yet rather pleasing duty of the military arm to fill him with reformatory lead.

This writer says, "Cut out the big 'I'." says that the papers are subsidized; asks why I do not stick up for fair play, accuses me of insulting "the most loyal, patriotic and brave citizens," i. e., of insulting him and his type, treacherous enemies of the republic. And says other things, all of them unworthy of notice, so do they fairly hiss their venom. But one stamps on a snake.

Having undertaken to answer this timorous venter of abuse he dares not sign, it is necessary to go to a length quite unusual for this column.

As to the big "I". The matter that appears in this column appears also in other columns, being syndicated. In other words, it goes to editors of all shades of belief. It is necessary, then, to differentiate, and to cause the reader to understand that opinion here expressed is personal. It is not always the opinion of the newspaper editor, in fact, might be opposed to his views, and he is at full liberty to denounce it, or to argue against it. Hence the pronoun is required sometimes. It also stands for the fact that, having written an opinion, I do not seek to sneak out of the responsibility.

As to the press being subsidized, the charge is a wanton falsehood, as the author of the letter knew, granting that he is not a fool, a charge that is not here made. The folly of a fool is forgivable. I refer to the press as a whole. Probably there are exceptions. The same influence that has honeycombed this land with spies, that has sought to subvert the processes of legislatures and courts, that has inspired and maintained mobs of pacifists intent on the ruin of the republic, that has sought to engage Mexico and Japan in a war with the United States, that vainly has tried to corrupt organized labor, to set up revolution among the ignorant negroes of the south, that has hired assassins to use bombs upon peaceful industries, that has murdered American men, women and children on the high seas, that has used the consulates of this country as dens for plotters, that has started a conflagration now blazing all over Europe, and at this moment seems likely to light our shores with the flame of battle, that has violated every pledge, every tradition of decency, that has led peoples into slavery, that has tramped with bloody feet through Belgium, and gladly would extend the area of havoc to embrace the globe—this same influence does appear to have been able to purchase the support of at least one class of newspapers. Such seems to me the truth, and yet it may not be. Possibly the direction of the newspapers in question is under control of the sort of mind that cannot distinguish right from wrong; a moral idiot, the naturally of the anonymous person now addressed.

This country has been neutral. It was neutral as long as the possibility of being so existed. This possibility was swept away. War was made up on us while yet we were peaceful and desirous to be peaceful; while yet America was pleading for a chance to forget its hurts and act as mediator. Personally I never have been neutral, nor pretended to be. From the first I believed the Kaiser precipitated his war under the obsession that the time had come for him to assume mastery of the world. There has been in the conduct of himself and his chiefs not a ray of commendatory activity. They were out for prey and they were ready to slay untold millions of their own blood.

If the military clique of Germany, which has set civilization back many decades, could be overthrown, eliminated, effaced, whether by a combination from without, or by the upheaval of German manhood in revolt, the only triumph possible to the Germans would be achieved. And it would be a noble triumph, leaving the Germans, shifty, honest, efficient people, facing a world all friendly to them. The rank and file are not blamed for the malign and futile ferocity of their leaders.

The creature whom these comments are designed to uplift to a plane of decency will notice that they are not anonymous. I trust that editors, agreeing with them or not, will have the kindness to print them.

MORE THAN 300 RACE DRIVERS AVAILABLE FOR U. S. WAR SERVICE

NEW YORK, April 7.—Over 300 racing drivers registered with the A. A. Contest Board have signified their availability for military service in case of war. Of these approximately half have signified that they would prefer the aviation corps and the other 50 per cent motor car service. The present vote is the result of a letter mailed February 19 by Richard Kennerdell, chairman of the contest board, to all registered drivers and registered mechanics. Chairman Kennerdell drew attention to the necessity for preparation to join the United States service in the event of war and enclosed a blank to be filled out, signifying which service was preferred.

AMUSEMENTS

"Peggy" Hill

The year 1917 marks the crest of a wave, which has swept into enormous proportions in the last decade, and which voices the challenge of western musical audiences. Increasingly they are demanding "nothing but the best" and the standards of excellence are mounting steadily higher. A timely answer to that challenge comes in a remarkable company of artists who will be presented in concert under the personal direction of Charles F. Horner. Harrison Keller, violinist, and Stewart Wille, pianist, hold an enviable position in eastern musical circles and have combined their talents and energies in perfecting the art of interpreting the masterpieces, the beauties of which are so well known to music lovers. Splendid training and enthusiastic public approval have carried them to the front rank of American musicians. These artists appear on the Santa Ana Chautauque program, which starts April 24.

Clune's Theater

To the thousands of book readers who know the tense dramatic interest and deep emotional thrill of Harold Bell Wright's famous story of love and adventure, "The Eyes of the World," it will be welcome news that a magnificent motion picture production of the romance in ten reels, which W. H. Clune, the maker of "Ramona," and part producer of "The Clansman" ("The Birth of a Nation") will be seen here at Clune's Friday and Saturday.

Lovers of exciting photo-drama will have their fill in "The Saintly Sinner," forming the attraction at Clune's tonight.

The West End

A demonstration of patriotism was exhibited last night at the West End Theater during the showing of Theodore Roberts in "The American Consul." The entire audience rose to its feet during the picture. The production is not a war picture. It is a real picture of American loyalty and is a timely masterpiece at the present moment. The production will be shown again tonight for the last time.

The Princess

The struggle for the possession of Little Bear's warrant for the Indian lands is the theme around which all the action revolved in "Retribution," the fifteenth and closing chapter of the Mutual-Signal photo-novel, "A Lass of the Lumberlands," in which Helen Holmes has played the role of the dauntless heroine.

See it at the Princess today or Thursday.

MOTOR PLANT HELPS U. S. WAR DEPARTMENT

OAKLAND, April 7.—The Hall-Scott Motor Car Co., makers of the Hall-Scott aviation engine, which is being used in the new Fageol car, has received an urgent request from the War Department to use every effort to furnish all available aviation engines for the next six months. The Fageol Motor Co. has agreed to allow the Hall-Scott Motor Co. to use its allotment for this period to help in filling the demand of the government. Consequently the Fageol Motor Co. will accept no further orders for cars until the present needs of the War Department have been filled and engines again can be obtained from the Hall-Scott Motor Car Co.

Order your Hot Cross Buns at W. D. Bakers for Friday morning.

ORANGE TO CONDUCT PATRIOTIC MEETING FIRST OF NEXT WEEK

ORANGE, April 4.—At a meeting of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association last night steps were taken for a big patriotic meeting to be held in Orange the first of next week. Arrangements are to be made by committees. It is proposed to invite people from the entire section to the meeting, and to make it a demonstration that will fire the souls of the indifferent.

NATURALIST REPLIES TO LONDON WOMEN'S QUERIES ON LION CUB

LONDON, April 4.—"I am very anxious to buy a pet to present to my son's regiment, and have decided upon a young lion cub," wrote a woman to a London naturalist. She asked four questions to which he replied: (1) A healthy male lion cub would cost about $100 of $140. (2) It would be perfectly safe for "the lion" to roam around the barracks. (3) It would grow "some." (4) It would want from 8 to 10 pounds of meat a day when grown. No reply was received.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Thirty-six thousand fans witnessed the opening games in the Coast League.

Patriotism and baseball mingled freely. Both teams did military stunts before the game at San Francisco and saluted the flag like regular soldiers.

Although the Oaks garnered nine hits, they couldn't bunch them and tallied only once.

Gleichmann's triple with two on and Ryan's screaming hit in the fourth gave the Angels three runs and they counted two more in the next inning when Wade Kilfiter's three-base swat scored Meusel. Kilfiter himself tallied a moment later while O'Mara was trying to find a grounder.

The Seals got cramps in their legs running bases.

Nineteen hits seemed a great sufficiency, but just to show their friendliness, the Tigers contributed eight horrible errors. The total Seal tallying was 15.

Wolverton's crew got at least one hit in every inning but the fifth. Five of the blows were for extra bases. McLarry, for Vernon, hit four safeties in four times up and scored two of the Tigers, five runs.

The Bees' swatting ability dwindled as the game progressed. They bunched five of their 11 hits in the first stanza, for four runs.

Kirmayer's flinging was gilt edged. He permitted only five safe smashes, never more than one in any single inning. Some lurid fielding by the Bees filled the bases for Portland in the third but Kirmayer tightened up and retired the side. Final score: Bees 5, Beavers 0.

NEW FINANCE TANGLE FOR SHEEPSHEAD BAY

NEW YORK, April 7.—A new stage was reached in the financial difficulties of the Sheepshead Bay 2-mile loop speedway on Long Island when the Supreme Court in Brooklyn handed down a decision ruling that the Sheepshead Bay Speedway Corp. is indebted to the Coney Island Jockey Club to the amount of $2,135,161.86 and granted to the club a judgment of foreclosure on the corporation's exhibition grounds at the old Sheepshead race track.

The Sheepshead Bay Speedway Corp. has at present a committee working along the line of financial reorganization, and it is expected that the speedway will be continued as it has in the past. The sentiment is strong that New York can support a speedway. Contests up to the present have not been a financial success, due to the very heavy overhead charges. When the speedway was built there was not sufficient money subscribed to meet construction obligations, and ever since the first meet there has been a heavy debt.

BRAZIL DECREE MAY EFFECT CALIFORNIA, FLORIDA FRUIT MEN

RIO DE JANEIRO, April 4.—California and Florida fruit growers will probably feel the effects of a government decree published here which exempts Argentine fresh fruits from customs duties. This exemption was decreed in exchange for the reduction of duties on several Brazilian products in Argentina.

In compensation to the United States for the free importation of Brazilian coffee, it was renewed the preferential tariff on American manufactured rubber goods, wheat, flour, condensed milk, dried fruits and other articles.

2 MORE ARMED SHIPS SAFELY RUN BLOCKADE

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The armed American line steamers St. Paul and Finland have arrived safely at their destination, the navy department announced today.

LYCEUM CLOSES

Final Number, "A Message From Mars," One of Best, News Is Delightful

Adrian M. News is a most delightful entertainer and a talented elocutionist. His "Message From Mars," given last evening at the Grand as the closing number of the successful Lyceum course, was the very best kind of a Lenten sermon and many in the huge audience probably found that the shoe fit his or her foot.

In explaining the story of "A Message From Mars," News said that the scene was laid in London, as the story was written by an Englishman, but it might just as well be laid in any other city and carried out by any other people, as everywhere just such characters are found.

The principal figure in the story was Horace Parker, extremely rich and just as selfish and egotistic as he had dollars, to which he hung on greedily.

The other leading characters are Minnie Temple, Aunt Martha and the tramp, together with the mythical messenger from Mars, who for punishment of the crime of vanity is sent to earth to find the most selfish man and reform him. His friends in Mars never expected to see him again.

The story takes Parker through a terrible dream, where he is compelled to give up much of his beloved money to the poor and unfortunate, his betrothed wife, Minnie, becomes engaged to another, his fortune is lost in a bank failure and his house burns to the ground.

When he awakens, he is much relieved to find it all a hideous dream, but the reformation is accomplished and as a tenuous nearly burns, he rushes to the rescue and brings many of the poor people to his palatial home and cares for them, thus winning back his sweetheart, the love of his aunt and the admiration of his associates.

"Otherdom" was the word used by the messenger from Mars for the opposite of selfishness and Parker finds much pleasure in carrying out the full meaning of the word.

Prof. D. K. Hammond, principal of the high school, made the announcements and pleasantly introduced the speaker of the evening. Mr. Hammond stated that a meeting of the Lyceum committee would be held in the near future to decide upon next year's course and invited the citizens to attend the meeting or send in their suggestions. While this year's course has been most excellent, it is hoped to have a better one next season.

One of the pleasant and greatly enjoyed features of last night's entertainment was the singing of two numbers by the polytechnic high school male quartet, directed by Miss Mary Ely.

TALKED FOR RED CROSS

Miss Birdenia Henry Presents Subject to Spurgeon P. T. A., Bills Explained

The Spurgeon Parent-Teacher Association held a very enjoyable and instructive meeting yesterday afternoon in the auditorium, which was artistically decorated with poppies for the occasion.

The program opened with songs by the Third grade, followed by a song of action by the First grade, under the direction of Miss Kaufman, all of which were very pleasing.

The kindergarten children came upon the stage and rendered a number of selections under the guidance of Miss West, with Miss Knight at the piano and their part in the entertainment was greatly enjoyed.

A dramatization, "Billy Goats," given by several first grade pupils, concluded the children's program in a very happy manner.

Miss Isabel Anderson of the Junior College was introduced and asked the co-operation of the association, in helping to make a grand success of the entertainment to be given by the Junior College on the evening of May 18 on the high school grounds.

The dramatization of "The Princess" with fifty-five in the cast will be given and every one is urged to attend.

Miss Birdenia Henry of the high school gave a very helpful talk upon the Red Cross, a chapter of which has recently been organized in Santa Ana, telling of its origin, organization and different departments of work and that a campaign for memberships would soon be commenced and every one urged to become a member.

Mrs. J. N. Anderson, president of the City Federation, stated that Santa Ana had 524 paid memberships in the various Parent-Teacher Associations, which was an increase of 107 over last year.

She then gave a very comprehensive talk upon three bills now before the Legislature and stated that a book entitled California Laws in the Interest of Women and Children, could be obtained by writing to the state librarian, J. W. Gillis, at Sacramento.

The kindergarten having the largest number of mothers and friends present, will receive the treat this month.

The meeting adjourned for a social hour, when fruit and cake were served by the young girls.

Knights, Ladies of Security

The Knights and Ladies of Security will hold a business meeting this evening at 7:30 in James' gold room. Business of importance will be transacted and all members and visiting members in the city are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Junior Essay Tryout

Yesterday afternoon the Junior essay tryout was held in the music hall at the high school. Miss Katherine Beswick's essay on "Windows," was chosen by the judges as the best. These essays are original and about ten minutes in length.

Miss Beswick will represent the Junior class of the Santa Ana high school at the Orange county forensic contest, which is to be held at Fullerton, May 19th. Those with whom Miss Beswick had to compete were: Misses Viola Fitch, Marian Scudder, Christine Watson, Margaret May, Mary Blake, Lillian Martin, Muriel Wright, and Cassius Paul and Matthew Chumel.

Attended Beach Club Meeting

Mrs. Alva J. Padgham of this city, district chairman of the Southern California Federation, read an interesting paper on the subject of Music at a recent Woman's Club meeting at Huntington Beach. Mrs. Padgham also gave a splendid interpretation.

Fewer Eggs are required with
ROYAL BAKING POWDER

In many recipes the number of eggs may be reduced with excellent results by using an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, for each egg omitted. The following recipe is a practical example:

Chocolate Sponge Roll

1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
2 squares melted chocolate

2 tablespoons melted shortening
1/4 cup hot water
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

The old method called for 4 eggs and no baking powder

DIRECTIONS—Sift flour, baking powder and salt together three times. Beat whole eggs. Add slowly sugar, then boiling water slowly; add next vanilla, melted chocolate and melted shortening, without beating. Sift in dry ingredients, and fold in as lightly as possible. Pour into large baking pan lined with oiled paper, and bake in slow oven twenty minutes. When done, turn out on a damp, hot cloth, spread with white icing and roll.

Booklet of recipes which economize in eggs and other expensive ingredients mailed free.

Address ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. 135 William St., New York

Owen D. Peters read an interesting paper on "How to Test Fabrics."

A general discussion led by Mrs. Ellen Chenev was held by the members, the subject of discussion being "Systematic Housework."

The hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. H. A. Bennig and Mrs. G. A. Shank. Mrs. W. E. Gerhart presided owing to the absence of President Mrs. C. A. Johnson.

MEDIAEVAL ART

Interesting Subject Presented Before Woman's Club, Delegates Are Elected

The Woman's Club met in regular session at the home of Mrs. P. L. Tope yesterday afternoon. The opening of the meeting occurred after the usual order, Mrs. C. H. Stanley presiding.

Communications upon various subjects were read by the corresponding secretary and proper action taken.

Mrs. P. L. Tope was elected delegate to the state convention of Federated Women's Clubs to be held in Pasadena in May. Mrs. Ruth Tiffany was elected alternate. Mrs. George Whidden and Mrs. C. T. Wells were chosen delegates to represent the Woman's Club at the county convention at Anaheim April 14. Mrs. Mary Emerson and Mrs. Tiffany were elected alternates.

"Mediaeval Art" was the subject of the afternoon's program and was ably and graphically presented by Mrs. Ruth Tiffany, who illustrated her talk on the legends and stories of art by the use of picture reproductions of the great artists. Mrs. Tiffany having visited many of the great art galleries of Europe in 1910, was fittingly prepared to handle her subject with great artistic excellence.

The most admired artist was the topic at roll call.

The club will meet with Mrs. Annie Gale April 17.

To Elect Delegate

The Fraternal Brotherhood tomorrow evening at its meeting will vote for a delegate to the supreme lodge and the members are very anxious to have a representative from Santa Ana Lodge No. 20, the candidate being L. F. Harvey.

Every member is urged to be present to cast his or her vote.

Another feature is a banquet to be served by the losing side in the recent contest.

WEEK OF PRAYER

The week of prayer is being observed at the Christian church and the meetings are well attended. Those who do not go to the church are requested to pray at their homes each afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The motto is "Christ for the World and the World for Christ."

NEWS FROM CO. L

By Private D. E. Keech

IN CAMP ARCADIA, April 2—Yesterday (Sunday) evening, the boys were treated to an informal and non-sectarian religious service, in the name of the Y. M. C. A., by a group of instrumentalists and singers from the churches of Monrovia. They quietly appeared in camp in our broad company street, allowing the sweet strains of "A Perfect Day," sung amid the glow of the sinking sun, by the talented alto, Miss Elizabeth Palmer of Monrovia, to announce their presence among us. Soon a hundred men from the various companies in camp were formed in a half circle about the musicians. Hymn books were passed around and the next half hour was taken up with songs by the whole congregation and selections by the orchestra. One of the visitors spoke briefly to the men on the supreme importance of fighting honorably and righteously while enlisted in and honorable and righteous cause. At the close of his talk, the soldiers expressed thanks for the services and gave three rousing

IN WATER BILL FINDS MENACE TO MUTUALS OF COUNTY

Atty. Keech Protests Against Provisions of Irrigation Measure District

That Senate Bill No. 121, if passed as it now reads, would jeopardize both the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company and the Anaheim Union Water Company is the declaration of Attorney E. E. Keech of Santa Ana, attorney for the two water companies. Keech is preparing a statement that he will send to State Senator Evans and to others outlining the reasons why the bill is pernicious.

"The bill looks innocent enough," said Attorney Keech today, "but it is a menace unless it is amended to make an exception of mutual companies."

In brief, the measure provides that a majority acreage of any district may form that district into an irrigation district, by petitioning the Board of Supervisors of the county in which it is proposed to form the district. No vote is provided for. Should the bill become law as it now reads, a large acreage of dry lands could petition to form a district that would take in an irrigated area or less acreage, and should the petition get by the supervisors the majority dry lands could compel the irrigated lands to distribute its water on to the dry lands.

The district would have the power to condemn rights, and could get the control of private water rights.

Mutual water companies are private companies, though distinctly cooperative, and are subject to condemnation proceedings. A big acreage adjoining the area irrigated by the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company could petition for the formation of an irrigation district that would include the entire acreage irrigated by the S. A. V. I. Co., with the expectation of eventually compelling the condemnation of the S. A. V. I. Co. rights so that some of the water now used on lands under the S. A. V. I. Co. would be used on lands not now water stocked.

The bill was drawn up by Attorney Sargent, representing a Los Angeles title company, without any intention of applying it to the two big irrigation companies of Orange county. Nevertheless the measure would touch both of these companies vitally.

Attorney Keech states that there may be areas where the law would be effective and useful, but it ought not to be applied to apply to mutual irrigation companies. He is going to appeal to Senator Evans, Senator Carr and possibly others to see to it that if the measure passes the Senate that it goes through with an amendment exempting mutual water companies from its operations. That is, make it so that the property and water rights of mutual water companies cannot be condemned for the use of any irrigation district.

A WELL-KNOWN WOMAN SPEAKS.

Los Angeles, Cal.—"It gives me great pleasure to add my testimonial to the many you have already. I cannot say enough in praise of your great medicine, 'Favorite Prescription.' Had used several different medicines for woman's disorders but found none that did me any good until I learned of yours. Using yours I got quick, excellent results. Will always sing the praises of Dr. Pierce's medicines. My mother and sisters also used them and found that they were all that was claimed for them. It is always a great pleasure to tell a suffering woman of these remedies, and I always find that whoever I tell of the good they will do is afterward ready to join in the praise. May I always be in reach of them."—MISS MARTIE LOU CARTER, 1514 S. Ardmore Ave.

Every woman who has reason to believe that backache, headache, pain, low spirits, sleeplessness, irregularity or a catarrhal condition is caused by a derangement of the womanly functions, owes it to herself to speedily overcome the trouble before a general breakdown causes permanent prostration.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a non-alcoholic remedy that any ailing woman can safely take because it is prepared from roots and herbs with pure glycerine, containing tonic properties of the most pronounced character.

PANICS WILL NOT FOLLOW WAR OR ITS CLOSE SAYS BANKER

Cashier L. M. Doyle Tells of Business Possibilities in Address at Luncheon Today

There will be neither panics nor cessation of business activities in America if the United States goes to war nor following the close of the war, in the opinion of L. M. Doyle, cashier of the California National Bank.

Doyle was the speaker at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon at the Cherry Blossom today. He showed that he was in close touch with the financial conditions of the country and of the probable demands America would have to meet after the war in supplying the fighting nations with finances, food stuffs, machinery, etc.

His address was full of information. While he did not believe there would be any sudden break in prices after the war, he advised the business men of Santa Ana to buy lightly on the rising market and to be ready to unload before the adjustment that is certain to come when peace is declared.

The business men ate lunch today under the folds of Old Glory. An extremely large American flag formed a canopy over the section of the dining parlors set apart for the business men, and a small flag on a brass staff was at each plate, and these were carried away as souvenirs.

T. A. Wimbler was chairman of today's luncheon and he appointed J. E. Liebig as chairman for the luncheon next week.

"What Effect Will the War Have on the Financial and Commercial Interests of This Country?" was the subject of Doyle's address, which he handled in an able manner, holding the attention of his auditors throughout.

"So much history has been made during the past two and one-half years that it is difficult to fix upon any particular event as a feature of the financial or business situation," said Doyle.

"In ordinary times our country would be up in arms in a hurry over any one of the dozens of momentous happenings that have received little more than passing comment in the newspapers. So many uncomfortable situations have arisen in our financial and other far-reaching problems, in such rapid succession, that the public sense of proportion is very much dulled, and nothing short of a very serious enough to bring home to us a proper realization of our position.

With the greatest prosperity and business activity the country has ever known, requiring the use of 'many hundreds of millions of additional accommodations from banks, the business men of the country have at the same time enjoyed the most favorable interest rates.

"During the past two and one-half years our nation has been transferred from the debit column to the credit side. It will be hard, not only for them but for us, to realize that as a result of the wholesale migration of negotiable securities from one country to the other a great stream of interest and dividend payments no longer flows eastward from New York but that a new stream of such payments has started flowing from London westward. For we have not only bought back our own obligations and are taking the place of England and France as bankers for Canada and South America; but we are actually lending to English and French cities. It is even probable that the French railroads may have to borrow in this country. If the war lasts long enough we will take over Great Britain's interests not only in her own colonies but in some of her own home industries as well. New York is now the undisputed money center of the world.

England Releasing Priceless Resources

"England has been jealously guarding her American collateral, trying hard to keep what she prized the most, but is now gradually letting go of her priceless financial resources, piece by piece.

"For more than two years London has been undergoing a noiseless form of earthquake. The financial organization that existed there at the outbreak of the European war has fallen to pieces bit by bit. London's normal business of banking for the world has been wound up and all the country's capital has gone into its own government securities. We do not know how long this process can continue, but already England and her allies have exchanged the right to a large share of the grain and cotton and beef of America for the promises of their own governments. Europe has given up a large share of the industrial production of the United States and has in its place only the income of its own taxation.

"Since the beginning of the European war our country has passed swiftly and definitely from the ranks of the debtor countries and has become the most potential of the creditor nations. Practically the whole world is in debt to us and steadily increasing its obligations.

"Our financial condition in relation to other peoples and the world at large becomes stronger from week to week and from month to month. As the figures show so conclusively, our wealth is piling up with wonderful rapidity.

"From present indications it is probable that we will be required to finance not only our own enterprises, our preparations to make ourselves a formidable and therefore a respected power, and the commerce which is folding for us on this hemisphere, but also the endless complications and demands of readjustment and re-establishment that will follow the close of the great war.

Ready to Meet Demands

"To meet these enormous drafts and strains on our resources, the most tremendous requirements and the widest opportunity that any nation in the world's history has ever faced, we are now strong and ready.

"We have gained in a year and four months, from June 23, 1915, to November 17, 1916, over six billion dollars in the resources of our banks, counting all banks. This means that we have added to the resources of our banks in this brief space of time an amount exceeding by a billion dollars the entire resources, as recently reported, of the Bank of England and the Bank of France combined. As a further comparison the increase for this period also represents an amount twice as great as the total resources of the Reichsbank of Germany, plus the resources of the Bank of Italy, according to their latest reports.

"We have now the Federal Reserve System, which we believe assures us against panics and fears such as have in the past, at intervals, disturbed our commerce and paralyzed our industries. The Rural Credits, or Federal Farm Loan System, will aid in securing permanent commercial strength and safety based on the sure foundations of prosperous and thriving communities of farmers, held to the soil by ties of ownership and encouraged and aided to secure constantly increasing results per man, per acre, and per day.

Strongly Entrenched Financially

"In reviewing our banking and fiscal situation we seem now to be entrenched financially almost as firmly as it is possible for any human government to be. We are well prepared for preparedness and ready and able to provide for whatever increases of army and navy the Congress may think to be necessary.

"Our preponderating power in world finance is fast being recognized in all countries. As an illustration of the opinions now held abroad as to this country, it may not be amiss to quote the following extract from an editorial entitled, 'American Banks and the Future,' which appeared recently in one of the leading English newspapers, the Manchester Guardian:

"European financiers in general would be well advised to face the fact that the war has radically transformed the relations between the United States and Europe. The American controller of currency in his latest report indicates how greatly American banks have developed in recent years. Their resources on November 17 amounted to 3,104 million pounds. They have grown by 800 millions since 1913 and doubled since 1906.

"The Federal Reserve Act and other legislation under Mr. Wilson's auspices have been given them, for the first time in their history, a really sound organization. The United States has wiped out, or by the end of this war will have wiped out, most of its debt to foreign investors. It will have a currency of unimpeachable soundness, fortified by a gold reserve of unprecedented magnitude.

American Bankers Get Experience

"The American bankers will have acquired the experience they have hitherto lacked in the international money market. And all this strengthened financial fabric will rest upon an economic fabric which the war will have much expanded. It can hardly be doubted that under these circumstances New York will enter the lists for the financial leadership of the world."

"The war to date has cost the fighting nations close to eighty billions of dollars, and every day now adds about 15 million dollars to that total. Most of this gigantic cost has been paid by government borrowings. Every American business man wants to know what effect the ending of the European war is going to have on business in this country.

"He knows that the increase in our exports of explosives, for instance, from $6,000,000 in the 1914 fiscal year to $467,000,000 in 1916, cannot last, but he is in doubt as to how much of the advance from $165,000,000 to $436,000,000 in exports of breadstuffs, or from $251,000,000 to $621,000,000 in exports of iron and steel products, we are going to hold.

"A recent report of the National Foreign Trade Council on 'World Trade Conditions After the European War' throws some light on this situation. It estimates the loss of public and private property in the European theaters of war at nearly six billion dollars. Some of this loss will never be replaced, and a good part of it will only be restored gradually.

Business Future Bright

"Agricultural machinery, seeds and building materials will be in immediate demand in Europe after the war. The Federal Trade Council estimates the first year's needs of Belgium and France for industrial buildings, for machinery of all kinds, and for railroad repairs, bridges, roads and other government property at $1,316,000,000.

"Germany will require little of these for reconstruction, but her need for food supplies and raw materials will be urgent. This is estimated for the first year at about double what it was

The super-permanent exterior finish

Almost any wood will last fairly well if thoroughly protected by paint, and if painted often enough. But why not start right and use California Redwood, the wood that is rot resistant naturally and does not have to depend for its durability on paint or artificial preservatives of any sort?

California Redwood has rot resistance grown into it, a natural preservative that prevents the fungus growth that produces decay in other woods. It is super-permanent.

California Redwood

Resists rot, will not shrink, swell or warp

Redwood's wonderful living power when exposed to the weather or in contact with the ground, causes it to resist wet and dry rot and makes it the best wood for all exterior uses from mudsill to roof.

Properly seasoned Redwood does not shrink, swell or warp, thus eliminating disfiguring cracks, twists and leaks. For interior trim, Redwood's warm natural color gives distinct individuality, and the great variety of grain effects offer unlimited artistic possibilities.

Your local lumber dealer carries Redwood in stock, or can easily get it for you. And the price is reasonable.

TERRIBLY SICK WOMAN

Surgical Operation Thought Necessary, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her.

Madison, Wis.—"I was a terribly sick woman for over three years. I suffered with terrible pains in my back and was about to have an operation when a friend said to me, 'Before having that operation just try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I let the operation wait, and my husband bought me the Vegetable Compound and it has made me a well woman and we have a lovely baby girl. We cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough, and I hope this letter will lead other suffering women to try it."—MRS. BENJAMIN F. BLAKE, R.F.D. No. 5, Box 22, Madison, Wis.

There must be more than a hundred thousand women in this country who, like Mrs. Blake, have proven what wonders Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can do for weak and ailing women. Try it and see for yourself.

All women are invited to write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

NEW YORK, April 4—Billy Sunday's giant tabernacle is all ready for him to start his light on the devil in New York at Broadway and 168th street Sunday morning.

The big choir is organized. Every citizen, large and small; every working girl, every boy, every laborer, every scrubwoman, has been told and told of Sunday's coming. Thousands of them have been organized into Bible classes, personal workers, singers and other assistants to the redoubtable Billy.

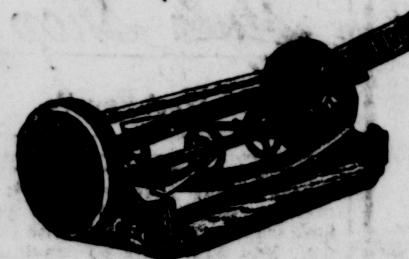

This New York campaign is expected to be Sunday's greatest triumph or his worst tumble from the pedestal of evangelism. New York awaits him without much to say. It is inordinately curious to see what he looks like and how he acts.

Broadway and Boose have paid little attention to him. He may stir up a fight with the Great White Way after he gets started though.

Sunday has said he will be a bit tamer here with his slang and his slams than elsewhere. New York wonders why. It rather expected him to tear loose and go the limit and over. But Sunday says slang is out of use mostly now and he thinks there are a few good theatres and cabaret restaurants too.

Billy has promised to turn his tabernacle into a big recruiting station in case the United States goes to war with Germany. His son, George M. Sunday, will join the aviation corps, he says.

COUNTY TO FINISH PAVING JOB WITHIN NEW CITY OF BREA

When Work Is Completed, Maintenance Be Turned Over to Town

This morning the Board of Supervisors decided to complete a mile of paving that was started a short time before the city of Brea was incorporated. Of the mile, 700 feet is inside the city limits of the new municipality. At first, the supervisors decided to halt the paving inside the city limits, but a way has been found to finish the work.

The road had been torn up, and was in bad shape. The new city has no money with which to do the work. Either the 700 feet must stand as a public menace and eyesore, else the county must finish the job.

By resolution passed this morning the supervisors agree to take over the road and finish the work, after which it will be turned back to Brea for maintenance.

Pavement Accepted

Today the county board accepted as completed the paving on Lemon street north of Anaheim, and also the paving of section 2 of the Placentia-Yorba road.

Two petitions filed by J. B. Stephenson and others for the abandonment of old streets platted at El Toro but not now used were granted.

To Let Contract

May 1 at 2 o'clock bids are to be received for the grading of a county road in San Juan Hot Springs canyon. This road is one that was decided upon a year ago after the floods had done considerable damage to the road in the canyon.

P. F. Warren, J. W. Mitchell and County Surveyor McBride were appointed as viewers of a road petitioned for at Laguna Beach by J. N. Isch and others. George Trapp, Fred Bastady and McBride were appointed viewers of a road petitioned for by A. Nelson and others of Buena Park.

TALK TIME PAST SAYS BELL AND S. F. SPEEDS UP

Bay City Hums With Preparations For War; Recruiting Takes Spurt

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—San Francisco today entered into a new stage of its war preparations characterized by the remark of General J. Franklin Bell, commanding the western army department, when he declared that the "time for talking has passed." Today at the Presidio, on the down town streets, at the recruiting offices, in fact everywhere, there is action.

At the presidio additional companies of the national guard are being mustered into the federal service and by tomorrow it is expected that the entire membership of the Fifth and Second regiments will be enrolled. Four additional companies arrived during the twenty-four hours ending this morning and more are coming today. The old barracks, almost unoccupied since Pershing's expedition left for Mexico again are humming with activity; soldiers are tramping over the paths carrying their allotment of equipment and on the drill grounds companies are being drilled from morning until night.

A huge American flag reaching across Market street, hereafter will greet every man who passes that street, reminding him of the fact that his nation is at war and that he must do his share. With military ceremonies and in the presence of companies of the national guard and regular army as well as many citizens, the flag was raised today.

Around the recruiting stations the number of applicants is increasing continually. Postmasters throughout the state are taking up the work of recruiting and are sending in many applicants while every mail is bringing letters from out of the way places, containing inquiries or offers of service.

Active organization by the Red Cross is in full swing. A workroom where women are urged to meet in groups of ten and devote spare time in making bandages for the use of the Red Cross, has been opened and a call to the women of San Francisco asking their aid, has been sent out. A campaign for new members also is under way and meeting good response.

WILSON IN FINE TRIM AS WAR PRESIDENT

Under Dr. Grayson's Care Executive Finds Self Fit In Every Way

By ROBERT J. BENDER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 4.—On the verge of war, at 60 years of age, President Wilson is in perfect physical trim.

To the casual observer he looks about 40 years old and he acts the part.

Exercise and relaxation in the open air and sunshine consistently employed, particularly in times of greatest stress, are largely responsible.

Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the President's friend and private physician, has played a prominent part in keeping the President strong and well. Whenever a danger signal is flashed along the President's system, Grayson "catches it."

On those occasions the President is sent to bed to rest and kept there under orders.

He and Grayson may always be seen together when some international difficulty has been encountered. They may either play golf together or ride about the Washington drives, swapping stories. In this the President revels as a relaxation and a favorite diversion on such drives is vying in the gentle art of rhyme and jingles.

As for every day habits, the President's are extremely regular. He keeps appointments with himself with the same "strict accountability" as he does with callers.

He has breakfast in his room, luncheon is always at 1 o'clock on the dot, and 7 o'clock dinner is the rule.

By holding to these few simple rules of living the President finds himself—a war president—physically and mentally fit to cope with the big problems ahead.

POLY BEATS NORWALK BY 3 TO 0 SCORE

Playing good baseball and hitting the ball hard, the Santa Ana Polytechnic team defeated Norwalk High School yesterday afternoon by a score of 3 to 0, on the latter's grounds.

Burke pitched a splendid game for the Santa Anas. Smith's cohorts were handicapped by a badly shaken infield, Tyrrell, 3rd baseman, being still out of the game on account of a broken rib, and Vanderlip, shortstop, also being out with a bad elbow. Pentecost played for Tyrrell and Raney for Vanderlip. Bryan batted a double.

ORANGE JOINS FIGHT AGAINST NEW RAILROAD

Committees to Carry Protest Before the State Railroad Commission

Two committees have been named to make a fight before the State Railroad Commission against the proposal of the Salt Lake railroad to build a line through the Villa Park and El Modena districts. One of those committees is L. L. Collins, W. M. Cummings, Willard Smith and D. C. Drake, orchardists in the section through which it is proposed to run the road. The other is a committee of Orange business men, appointed last night at a meeting of the Orange Merchants & Manufacturers' Association, to act with the orchardists' committee.

About twenty ranchers from the Villa Park and El Modena sections attended the M. & M. meeting at Orange last night. They declared that sentiment was unanimous in their sections against the coming in of another railroad. They said that the S. P. already gives them service for the transportation of their crops, and no Improvement in service will result from the coming of the Salt Lake. They declared that a railroad would cut up some of their ranches, and that a large acreage would be forever taken out of the productive class by the right of way.

The two committees are to file their protest not only with the Salt Lake railroad but also with the State Railroad Commission, and they propose to make as vigorous a fight as it is possible for them to make in carrying out their program.

ELMER T. WORTHY IS TAKING EXES TODAY FOR A COMMISSION

Today Attorney Elmer T. Worthy of Santa Ana received notification to appear at once in Los Angeles for examinations under his application for a captain's commission in the federal military reserve. Worthy sent in his application but ten days ago. Something of the activity with which war matters are being pushed is shown by the fact that a date for examination was sent forthwith. Worthy left for Los Angeles at noon today. Worthy served three years with the national guards company at Palo Alto, while he was a student at Stanford University, and he was with Co. L at Nogales.

FANS AGOG OVER FULTON-MORRIS GO

BY H. C. HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, April 4.—After tonight fight fans of the country will know whether Fred Fulton is ready to meet Jess Willard in a bout for the world's heavyweight championship. In his scheduled ten-round meeting with Carl Morris, Fulton is taking on his hands the biggest contract he has attempted since he began pestering Willard with challenges. He will have to win decisively to be figured ready for the big match.

Morris with one victory over Fulton, will, nevertheless, be on the short end of the betting, because of Fulton's fine showing in New York bouts recently.
